EXPERIENCE. UPLIFT. REJOICE.

Pastor's Pen

Two short, quick, and confusing vignettes:

Neil Marten, a former member of the British Parliament, tells the story of the day he was giving a tour through the Palace of Westminster to some of his constituents. At some point during the visit, the group ran into Lord Hailsham, then Lord Chancellor, wearing all the regalia of his office. Recognizing Marten in the group, he said, "Neil!" As Marten tells the story, all of his tour guests didn't dare disobey the "command" and fell to their knees!

A "do it yourself" catalog firm received the following letter from one of its customers: "I built a birdhouse according to your stupid plans, and not only is it much too big, it keeps blowing out of the tree. Signed, Unhappy. The firm replied: "Dear Unhappy, We're sorry about the mix-up. We accidentally sent you a sailboat blueprint. But if you think you are unhappy, you should read the letter from the guy who came in last in the yacht club regatta."

Harry Truman once said: "If you can't convince them, confuse them."

We live in a confused world. Social media, news media, and mail media makes it even more difficult to know who to listen to. But the Word of God is solid. Listening to it daily, you won't be as likely to be confused. In fact, the Bible even calls God's last day people out of the confusion.

Blessings,

Pastor Ben
