Pastor's Pen

Every year when I travel with the guys to Moab, UT, I stay in my friend's fifth wheel. We park out near a trail, and for 5 days, we're all self-contained. We have food, water, showers, electricity. Everything we need right there. For some time, my wife and I have been dreaming about buying a camping trailer. We want to travel, camp, and make memories with our kids. We all enjoy that way of life. And we love the idea of traveling and taking our "home" with us. And why not? We wouldn't need sleeping bags or tents. We could continue to cook on a stove instead of over a fire—but if we wanted a meal over the fire we still could. We have our own bathroom, so no need to fight with public restrooms in a camp area.

Then I started thinking about it. The camper allows me to have all the comforts and furnishings of my home—on the road. I can go to new places, see new things, and do new things, and yet, I carry with me my old setting and conditions. In the adventure of life, I suppose that's okay. But in the adventure of new life in Christ, be sure to leave the comfortable patterns of the old behind. Sometimes I wonder, if the pleasantries of our lives now, gets in the way of us dreaming about our life with Christ. I hope not.

Blessings,

Pastor Ben
